

Membership of the CASL Governing Body

MR CHRISTOPHER STACEY, CHAIR OF GOVERNORS, CEO AND COMPANY DIRECTOR

Prior to joining the CATS Group in 2012, Chris held senior finance posts at Roche Pharmaceuticals and Activision Blizzard focused on sales effectiveness, finance system integration and BI reporting. He has held a number of roles at CEG/CATS, including working in China (Beijing) as General Manager for 18 months where he was accountable for one third of the group's global revenue. More recently he has been managing the groups global finance department. He was responsible for day to day finance, audit, month/year end, tax, board reporting and financial/management accounting, ahead of taking up the CFO post for CATS Colleges prior to his position now as Chief Executive Officer.

MS KARIN ASKHAM, VICE CHAIR AND RECTOR, CSVPA

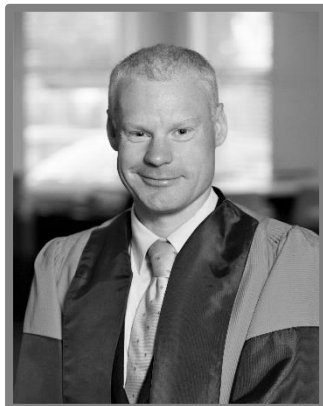

Karin has worked for nearly 30 years in a number of academic and senior management roles in highly regarded Universities. She has spent over five years in the role as Dean of the School of Media at London College of Communication, UAL. She was instrumental in the successful growth and development of the School, with two of the University research centres, Sound Arts and Photography staffed by mainly academics from within the School deemed to be world leading or internationally significant by the recent UK research excellence measurement. Her previous post was Associate Dean of the Graduate School at London College of Fashion, UAL, supporting the transformation of the postgraduate teaching portfolio of the College.

PROFESSOR ELIZABETH ROUSE, INDEPENDENT GOVERNOR

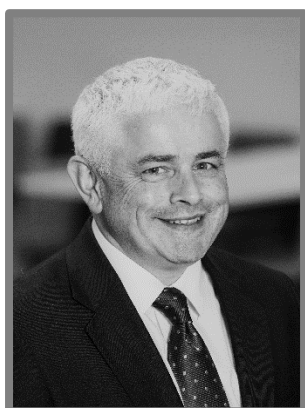

Elizabeth has over twenty years' experience of strategic leadership and management in higher education and the art and design sector, with particular expertise in quality assurance and enhancement, academic development and the student experience. Previous posts include Deputy Vice Chancellor Academic, followed by interim Pro Vice Chancellor at London College of Communication. She also has extensive experience as chair and as a member of boards and committees at national and international levels, and is an experienced governor at university, college and schools levels. Professor Rouse was awarded an OBE in 2013 for services to higher education.

DR CRAIG WILSON, MANAGING DIRECTOR (SCHOOLS)

Craig read Chemistry at the University of Oxford obtaining a first class degree. He stayed on to study for a DPhil, with his project making the front cover of the journal Angewandte Chemie. Following a PGCE in Secondary Science he became a Head of Chemistry in the UK before moving to an international school in China as Head of Science followed by a promotion to Deputy Head, with responsibility for student tracking and intervention, also setting academic targets for students. Craig has been working for CATS Colleges since 2013 and has been Executive Principal of CATS Colleges since January 2019 and Principal of CATS Cambridge since January 2016. His first role was Director of Education, coordinating the three UK CATS Colleges' academic activities.

MR DOMINIC TOMALIN, PRINCIPAL CATS CAMBRIDGE

Dominic joined CATS Cambridge as its Vice Principal in August 2016. He has extensive experience as a teacher having taught Economics, Business, Physics and Mathematics at A Level. This reflects his eclectic academic background; Dominic holds a Bachelor's degree in Natural Sciences and Masters' degrees in Economics and Education. Before joining CATS Cambridge, Dominic worked as a boarding Housemaster, Head of Department and he has been a school lead for university applications. Prior to becoming a teacher in 2005, Dominic worked in a range of senior roles in the logistics and telecommunications sectors, having previously served as an Officer in the British Army's Corp of Royal Engineers.

MR KEVIN HART, PROVOST CSVPA

Kevin is a creative professional with thirty years' experience of management and teaching within Higher Education. Previous roles include senior lecturer for MA Communication Design at Central Saint Martins College of Art and Design. He has exhibited work widely in both group and solo exhibitions at venues such as the National Army Museum, the Lethaby Gallery and Mall Galleries. Kevin joined CSVPA in 2004; providing experience and expertise central to the growth and development of the school.

MS ANNA COAKLEY, DIRECTOR OF SCHOOL OPERATIONS

Anna joined Cambridge Education Group as Director of Operational Quality in November 2016. Anna has 20 years of experience in customer service environments including eight years at The Savoy Hotel in London and managing front of house and event spaces within investment banks and law firms in the City of London. During her time with the company she has worked closely with the Operations Management team to drive standards and challenge practices to enhance the student experience outside of the classroom. She aims to act as a central voice promoting the group ethos when in the schools and a voice of the schools and the customer when within the central team.

MR JOE BUTTERFIELD, HEAD OF FINANCE

Joe joined the company in 2014. Initially leading the analytics team before progressing through the Financial Planning and Analytics (FP&A) department, and most recently to the position of Head of Finance. Joe studied Economics at Newcastle University and is a Chartered Global Management Accountant (CGMA). Throughout Joe's career at the company, he has been at the forefront of commercial decision making and is currently responsible for all aspects of finance performance including: the group audit, statutory reporting, management reporting & commercial analytics.

MR TIM GLADSTON, PEOPLE & ENGAGEMENT DIRECTOR

Tim has been leading global People Teams for over a decade within several sectors, including marketing, entertainment and retail. He now brings the experience of organisational development, talent, learning & development and organisational transformation projects to CGS.